

How can we help you?

With elected councillors at every tier in local government - parish and town, Dacorum Borough and Hertfordshire County Council - we are in a position to represent you and your concerns to the right council at the right level.

From bins to buses, from libraries to litter, from roads to recycling we're here to improve public services and maintain high standards.

We are working for you, making sure...

- that your tax money is well spent.
- that services are accessible and efficient.
- that your town is well managed.

How To Contact Us

For general enquiries about the local Liberal Democrat Party, please email our office: organiser@westhertslibdems.org.uk. Triple success as vote share soars!
More seats on the Borough, winning on the Town Councils, huge backing on Europe!

LIB DEM COUNCILLORS SAY:
"THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!"

Politics is changing in Dacorum, just as it is in the rest of the country. The success of the May 2nd elections has brought the Liberal Democrats back to areas that they have habitually represented in the past - Tring, Berkhamsted, Northchurch and Boxmoor in Hemel Hempstead.

Thanks to your support the Liberal Democrats have increased their seats on Dacorum Borough Council from 5 seats to 19!

Lib Dem team celebrates outside The Forum.

Liberal Democrats have now taken control of both Tring and Berkhamsted Town Councils.

10 Lib Dems were elected, giving them a majority of Berkhamsted Town Council's 15 seats. Cllr Garrick Stevens (to the left in yellow) has been elected as the Town Mayor.

In Tring the Lib Dems did even better, winning 11 seats on the Town Council and Cllr Roxanne Ransley is the new Mayor.

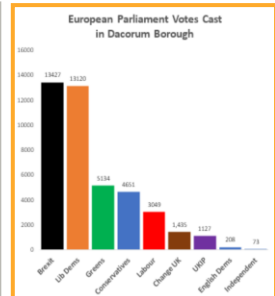

The Liberal Democrats are strong in Dacorum, strong in the East of England and, with their partner parties in the ALDE Group, strong in Europe.

Votes in the European Election were counted district by district, so we know how many votes were cast for each party in Dacorum Borough.

In the East of England as a whole, for all the Brexit votes in places like Clacton, the Liberal Democrats also came a well-placed second.

The Liberal Democrats won TWO MEPs in the East of England Region, Barbara Gibson (in yellow scarf) and Lucy Nethsingha.

In terms of votes cast in Dacorum, the LDs missed first place by only 307 votes.

Dacorum Borough Council

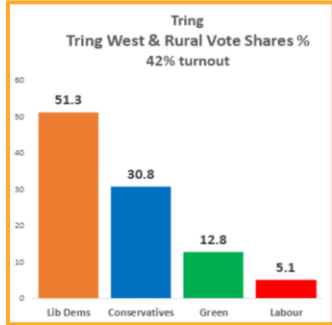

Nick Hollinghurst, Tring West & Rural
Christopher Townsend, Tring West & Rural

Our success in Dacorum is not confined to Tring, Berkhamsted and Northchurch. Our tally of 19 Dacorum Borough Council seats is impressive!

- 5 /6 in Tring and the Villages
- 6/6 in Berkhamsted
- We held Northchurch with an increased majority
- And in Hemel Hempstead we won three seats in Boxmoor, two in Highfield, and two in Adeyfield West.

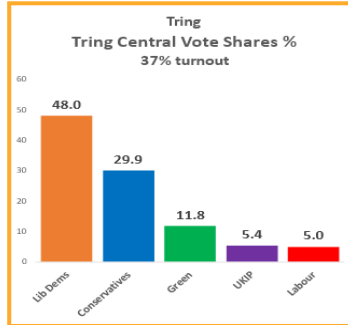

Our campaigning on behalf of both Borough and Town councillors was met with a warm and friendly response from many residents across Dacorum. We are grateful for the trust you have placed in us and will demand better on your behalf.

One of the two seats in Tring West & Rural has been held by the Lib Dems before, but now we hold both of them.

John Bowden, Tring Central
Roxanne Ransley, Tring Central

In Tring Central we again hold both seats. This will enable us to provide better support to the Community Centre.
